

Pū‘ā Foundation

Presents:

A Community Learning Collaborative

TRAUMA, HEALING & JUSTICE Individual, Community, Historical

“Trauma Informed Care Initiatives – Creating Places of Healing”

Session Highlights

Part 1: Defining Trauma for a Justice Setting & Beyond

Part 2: “Reclaiming Life After Trauma” featuring Justice Involved Women

Part 3: Engaging Dialogue, Questions & Answers

Part 4: Networking, Food & Fellowship

Why Attend

- Learn what trauma is & the process that leads to positive change
- Learn how you can be a part of the community healing process
- Be an agent of change to empower individuals, families & communities
- Network with families, government, faith-based, & community non-profit champions
- Meet individuals who are on their journey from trauma to transformation

Sunday,
November 23, 2014
4:00 pm – 7:30 pm

MAMIYA THEATER

St. Louis School/
Chaminade University

3142 Waiialae Ave.
Honolulu, HI 96816

COST:

$50 per person

$45 per person
for groups of 2 to 4

$40 per person
for groups of 5+

$60 per person
at the door

PAYMENT LINK

<https://sites.google.com/a/puafoundation.net/trauma-to-transformation/>

For more information
contact:

Debbie Victor
945-3570

debbie.victor@
puafoundation.net

PŪ‘Ā FOUNDATION

A 501(c)(3) specializing in developing community resources, capacity building, & training. Focusing on trauma to transformation. Empowering individuals, families, & communities.